

Coffman Commemorates Eighth Anniversary of 9/11 Attacks

(WASHINGTON, D.C) - Rep. Mike Coffman (R-Aurora) today released the following statement on the anniversary of the September 11, 2001, terrorist attacks:

“As we mourn the thousands of Americans that were killed on September 11, 2001 and the even greater number of family members and loved ones who suffered an immeasurable loss, we must remember that we still face an enemy who plots to kill innocent civilians and disrupt our way of life. We must remain resolved to protect our homeland and preserve our liberty in the face of this continuing and dangerous threat. ”

“On this day I am also filled with a deep sense of pride and inspiration for the courage and selflessness our fellow Americans showed that day and have shown in the years since. We owe a debt of gratitude to our military service members and our first responders who day after day risk their lives to protect us.”

“We must never forget the debt of gratitude we owe the men and women in uniform who have answered the call of duty and serve at home and abroad to keep our nation safe and free from the evils of tyranny. The President and Congress must stay resolute and continue to provide our troops with the resources they need to achieve victory and complete the job that has been asked of them. ”
